CB'ERS ASKED TO JOIN IN GOVERNOR'S HIGHWAY CRASH ALERT

the help of truckers in this effort.

"Unlike the stereotype of the truckers who don't obey the law, we have found many Virginia truckers eager to work for highway safety," Hanna said. "We are asking them to monitor Channel 9 and help us identify potentially dangerous situations on the highways.

"This is only the first step in a statewide program to involve CB radio operators in highway safety," Hanna explained. "We plan to organize a major campaign in 1978, but for now we are asking immediate assistance from CB'ers under these extremely dangerous conditions that exist on our highways today."

All CB operators who are interested in participating in a long-range safety program should write the Public Information Office, Highway Safety Division of Virginia, 300 Turner Road, Richmond, Virginia 23225.

IDEAL TREE FOR SMALL APARTMENTS

Apartment dwellers with limited space will welcome the Norfolk Island pine, a natural mini-Christmas tree, that is a charming houseplant all year as well. It requires a little water about twice a week and flourishes in full sun through the winter. Trimmed with tiny ornaments it is lovely, indeed. To keep the branches from sagging, hang the trimmings in a bit from the branch ends.

Jefferson Forest Beats Appomattox

By Donna Mitchell

The Appomattox Raiderettes met the Jefferson Forest Cavalettes on the Appomattox gym floor.

The first quarter was almost dead even with the score ending 10-10. In the second quarter, the Raiderettes went out ahead, leaving the floor at the half with a 27-24 lead. No one on the Raiderette team or a Raiderette fan wants to remember the third quarter. The Raiderettes couldn't seem to hit the basket and the Cavalettes went out ahead 35-27. The Cavalettes had another strong quarter in the fourth and held on to win 48-39.

Marie Fraley led the Raiderettes with 14 points. Marlene Moore had 8 points, Connie Murray had 7, Roxie Martin had 6 and Susan Godsey had 4.

The Cavalettes were led by Lynn Hunter who had 16 points Sharon Otey and Selena Calloway had 10 each, Judy Allen had 6, Kelly Johnson had 4 and Melissa Lee had 2.

The Cavelettes shot 33% from the floor and the Raiderettes shot 30% from the floor and the Raiderettes shot 30%.

The Raiderettes play Altavista Tuesday night at the ACHS gym and are open until January 3 when they play Liberty at Liberty. See you there!

Raiders Drop Two

By Tamara Nash

If there is one thing the Raiders could have removed from a ballgame it would probably be the foul line. At least for the game against Jefferson Forest at Appomattox on Tuesday night, December 13.

In the first quarter of the game, it looked pretty bad for anyone rooting for Jefferson Forest. The Raiders scored a super 22 points to a Cavalier 10. But in the 2nd quarter, the Cavaliers, with the help of 9 free throws, narrowed the lead to 4 points, 36 - 32.

The third and fourth quarters are merely bad memories as Jefferson Forest seemed to pick up momentum and Appomattox seemed to lose it. Cari Watson, leading scorer for the Raiders had scored 14 points in the first half, scored only 8 in the second. The game was a constant swapping of leads in the fourth quarter but the Raiders had missed their turn when the final buzzer sounded. The score was 69 - 65 and the Raiders had suffered their first seasonal loss.

Maybe Jefferson Forest set a new record against Appomattox, committing only 10 fouls the entire game.

Gerald Booker was second high scorer with 20 points, followed by Marvin Clark with 8, Joe Fraley with 6, Larry Kelso with 4, Tony Hancock with 3, and Arthur Haskins with 2. From the foul line, Appomattox was 7 to 13, Jefferson Forest was 25 for 36.

So, if you can't win them all, but the Raiders wanted to win most of them and so they traveled to Nelson on Friday night (December 16) hoping to defeat the defending seminole champions. And against Nelson, it would have been the first quarter the Raiders would have liked to omit. Without it the Raiders would have won 42 - 41. With it, they lost 62 - 50.

The game began simply as a match between David and Goliath but as it went on into the second half fouls plagued the Governors and out they came. But to no avail for the game removed the Governors.

Larry Kelso had 22 points for the Raiders, shooting 10 for 17 at the foul line. Carl Watson and Gerald Booker each had 8 points, Marvin Clark had 6, Joe Fraley had 4, and William Hamlett had 2. And so ends the Raiders second defeat but not the Raiders. After Christmas, they'll be ready to come back. You come, too, and Merry Christmas!
